

Professional Qualification in COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT MANAGEMENT Level 5 Diploma

Unit 5 - Accessing and Managing Project Resources

Question 1

A local chaplain of a community at risk of drought is bringing together other community members to form a community action group to provide help to vulnerable families in the area. He is seeking funding for sustainable food production farming and irrigation programmes.

Explain how to write an effective business proposal for this community project that will help to secure grant funding. (20 marks)

Question 2

(a) Identify the skills required from individuals involved in a community-based project to make it a success. (6 marks)

(b) Describe how to identify the training needs of individual team members in a community-based Project. (14 marks)

Question 3

Recommend ways for a community action group to build relationships with local businesses.
(20 marks)

Question 4

Discuss the advantages and disadvantages of private funding from local businesses as the main source of funding for a community-based project. (20 marks)

Question 5

Describe the role and responsibilities of a marketing project manager, and explain how they contribute to the successful management of a project. (20 marks)